

Compliance and Enforcement Forum – Virtual Session

Wednesday, March 8, 2023

2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Seminar Description:

Nursing Facilities are one of the most heavily regulated types of health care entities in the country and must comply with a multitude of state and federal laws and regulations. It is important for nursing facility providers to understand the current enforcement environment on the both the state and federal level related to these laws and regulations. This session will discuss:

- Federal Substance Use Disorder (“SUD”) discrimination settlements
- SUD components in the revised CMS Requirements of Participation
- Federal False Claims Act trends in long term care cases
- Recent Massachusetts long term care enforcement actions
- Staffing and discharge issues
- And much more

Objectives:

1. Understand the legal ramifications and process of DOJ investigations related to discrimination.
2. Identify areas of focus for potential investigations related to the Federal False Claims Act.
3. Understand revisions in the CMS Requirements of Participation related to the care of residents with SUD.
