9:30 am – 3:00 pm

PDPM: THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

Join us for a dynamic and informative program featuring experts in the clinical, legal and compliance aspects of the Patient Driven Payment Model (PDPM) who will share their knowledge and provide best practices to prepare you for a successful implementation of PDPM in your facility this October.

Morning Session:

Welcome and Answering the Call to Care Campaign Update

Tara Gregorio, President, Massachusetts Senior Care Association

PDPM: Beyond The Basics

Jennifer Gross, BSN, RN-BC, RAC-CT, CPHIMS

Senior Healthcare Specialist, PointRight

Jennifer Gross

By now, you know the basics of PDPM and how the various payment components are determined. The next step: putting your knowledge into practice! This session will discuss the moving parts of PDPM that are driven by your interdisciplinary processes. Learn about potential PDPM pitfalls, as well as effective strategies to put into place now to ensure success on October 1 and beyond.

Afternoon Session:

Compliance Under PDPM: The New Frontier

Mark Reagan, Managing Partner

Hooper Lundy & Bookman PC

Mark Reagan

The development of PDPM represents an intentional departure from the RUGs system and its incentives. However, this does not mean that the PDPM system is free of compliance risk. This program will address the compliance issues presented by PDPM and how to prepare for these challenges.
